

AN ENCOURAGEMENT FOR YOU

Read: Acts 4:31
After they prayed, the place where they were meeting was shaken. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God boldly.

Reflection:

- What was Pentecost? What was (and still is) the significance of this day?
- When was the last time you prayed for the Holy Spirit to fill your thoughts, actions, and words, and to lead your decisions?
- When do you most strongly feel the Spirit of God? When do you feel most distant from the Spirit?

Praise and Prayer:

- Pray for boldness and for the Spirit to work in your life this week.
- Pray for international relations between countries, as the world has been on edge recently. Pray for wise leadership and for God to work through the leaders that He has placed on Earth.
- Give thanks that He provides love and peace to those who seek it, no matter where they are or what they are dealing with.

A FEW THINGS TO KNOW

January Sunday School
Join us for Sunday school in January for an overview of how to read and understand the Bible. We will provide a glimpse of the Bible, how to read it to understand its meaning and some practical tips to form healthy habits to read Bible consistently.

Refugee Ministry

Shadan and Omed, the two refugees that we sponsored since April 2018, have received their visas and their permanent residences to Canada. They will be arriving to Toronto on next Wednesday evening January 22, 2020. Shadan's brother Aziz has prepared a place for them. Refugee Ministry will continue to support them for their adjustment and settlement in Toronto. Please continue to pray for their adjustment. Hopefully they will visit our Church one day after they settle down.

Chinese New Year

Chinese New Year will start on Jan 25. Besides having gatherings with families and friends, it would be great opportunities for us to care and share gospel with them. In order to support this, CNY Fair Chuen and gospel tracts will be available for you to pick up in the lobby.

January 19, 2020

Welcome to NCAC! We are so glad that you are able to join us today for our Sunday service. We believe that the Christian faith is about responding to God's invitation to be in a relationship with Him – this relationship changes everything.

Fellowship, or building relationships with each other, is another important aspect of Christianity. And so, we would love to connect with you beyond our service time. There are a few ways to do that:

Fill out a welcome card

These are located in the pew in front of you. You can then place it in the offering bag that will be passed during service. There, you can leave us your contact information, comments, or questions. We will be sure to reach out to you!

Join a small group

A small group is more than just a social gathering. Rather, it is a community of people who are committed to Jesus and to being vulnerable with each other. It is for anyone who has a desire to grow in their faith, who wants to love and learn Scripture, and who wants to share their faith with others. If this sounds like something you are interested in, talk to the small group leaders. They would love to hear from you! Their contact information can be found in this bulletin.

Join us for food, coffee, and conversation

Food was an important part of community-building in the Bible. People gathered together, celebrated and feasted. Similarly, community is important to us and we invite you to join us in the fellowship hall after service. Please come and sit in on a small group as we eat, drink, and continue the conversation that today's service started.
